

Sing along now “Tasty, tasty, it’s very tasty!”

Yes, that was the cry from the assembled masses of the Guildford coastal Cruising Club members as they tucked into a right royal feast at the recent Fitting-Out Supper and Quiz evening at the club-house. We numbered about 30, so there was a general hubbub of conversation around the room, and the bar, being run by Billie.

Although a standard formula for the courses, the content is always different! This year it was chicken, special sausages, wonderful home-made quiches, and pies, and cold-meats. Sitting alongside some 7 or 8 deliciously fresh, and very tasty, salads made by the committee members, with rolls and sauces.

Followed by what can only be described as a cornucopia of desserts. I counted at least 5 large cheesecakes, a huge apple pie, a chocolatey gooey pie thingy, jelly, strawberries, trifle and lots of cream!! It has to be said that some members managed 3 different desserts! No names though!!

Split into teams, we then experienced a “Leon Quiz”! It was 5 rounds that taxed our knowledge of historical sailing, navigation, general knowledge and the history of the Club (it is our 50th year, in case you hadn’t noticed!). Lots of really good questions. Some clever clogs amongst us achieved a really high score. I am pleased to advise my team were at the very opposite end of the spectrum – we reside somewhere in the real world! Thank you Leon for a fun Quiz!

An enjoyable evening, and now we look forward to the first Summer Rally of the year – may you have favourable winds to East Cowes and The Lifeboat, with your Rally Officer Chris Mellett.
